Normal retirement

Pension at Normal Pension Age
If you retire from Union service at Normal Pension Age, your pension will be:

- 1/60 of your Pensionable Salary for each year and complete month of Scheme Service that you paid member contributions of 11% of salary; plus
- 1/70 of your Pensionable Salary for each year and complete month of Scheme Service that you paid member contributions of 8% of salary.

Your total Scheme Service above will normally be limited to a maximum of 35 years.

The pension will go into your bank or building society account monthly, in advance.

(At the time of writing (1 March 2020) members can retire 5 years before the male State Pension Age even if you are a women). See the "Early Retirement" factsheet or "Your Guide" booklet.)

Cash sum
You will also receive a tax-free cash sum of 1.7% of your Pensionable Salary for each year and complete month of Scheme Service, up to a maximum of 35 years. It does not matter whether you choose the 8% or 11% contribution rate.

Example of benefits on retirement
In this example, you retire from Union service after 20 years' Scheme Service with a Pensionable Salary of £25,000 pa. You originally chose the 8% contribution rate, but after five years you moved up to the 11% contribution rate.

- For the first five years (on the 8% rate), you built up the lower level of pension: 1/70 x £25,000 x 5 years = £1,786 a year.
- For the next 15 years (on the 11% rate), you built up the higher level of pension: 1/60 x £25,000 x 15 years = £6,250 a year.
- So, your total pension is £1,786 + £6,250 = £8,036 a year.
- Your cash sum would be: 1.7% of £25,000 x 20 years = £8,500.

Extra cash sum
With the consent of the Trustee you may also have the option of exchanging some of your annual pension for extra tax-free cash (ie on top of your cash sum).

In addition (if applicable and with the consent of the Trustee and the Union), you may also use any additional voluntary contributions you have made to the Scheme for extra tax-free cash. If you are interested in doing this, please ask the Administrators (contact details below) for details.
